ASK AN EXPERT ABOUT SOCIAL SECURITY ON WMKV-FM
Thursday, January 21, 2:00-3:00 pm

Cincinnati, OH – 13 January 2021 – Social Security is a financial bedrock for retired and disabled Americans, but collecting benefits can sometimes be confusing. Cincinnatians with questions about Social Security can get real-time answers from one of the country’s foremost experts during an expanded edition of Anne Fredrickson’s radio program, Medicare Moment, on WMKV 89.3FM and WLHS 89.9FM. Fredrickson, Project Manager with Pro Seniors of Cincinnati, co-hosts. Webster Phillips, a senior policy analyst for the National Committee to Preserve Social Security and Medicare, will field questions on a broad range of Social Security topics from listeners who call into the show on Thursday, January 21, from 2:00-3:00 p.m. This special edition of Medicare Moment is supported by My Medicare Question.com and the educational app MMQ APP.

“When should I claim Social Security? Am I eligible for spousal benefits? Can I work while collecting Social Security?” These are the kinds of questions we answer every day at the National Committee,” says Phillips, who routinely responds to public inquiries through the organization’s free online tool, Ask Us.

Phillips is a 33-year veteran of the U.S. Social Security Administration (SSA), the federal agency that oversees benefits for 68 million Americans. He offers expert, unbiased answers as part of the National Committee’s mission to educate the public on issues affecting American’s current and future retirees. “You’ve earned these benefits,” says Phillips. “We want you to be able to collect them with minimal difficulty and maximum gain.”

Listeners with Social Security questions should call WMKV at 513-772-9658 or Toll Free at 1-877-772-9658 from 2:00-3:00 pm (EDT) on Thursday, January 21, 2021.
